Dear Tabatha,

NDI works internationally to provide free healthcare in developing countries. Focused on natural medicine, NDI full time naturopathic physicians have provided more than 6,000 patient visits since our inception. Looking to expand into new countries in 2008 and incorporate a variety of health professionals, NDI is committed to bringing natural medicine to the global health community, both on-the-ground and in global public policy. Our unique "Natural Medicine in Global Health" Course offers medical teams a unique opportunity to combine medical education, liberation medicine, and service learning. Join NDI today to make a difference in the world!

Help NDI - make GOODSEARCH your homepage

What if NDI had a penny for every time you searched the Internet?

Well we could! It's easy! Goodsearch is a new search engine designed for non-profits. What you do is go to www.goodsearch.com - search for Natural Doctors International (NDI) Portland, Oregon - set us as your non-profit and start searching - every search you do or online shopping you do thru the site donates money directly to NDI!!! Its that easy!
